

J Eoin - 'Sunshowers' 2018 - Album Lyrics

01 If Time Is The River

If time is the river and we are the shore
I'll stand here beside you forever and more
True as the water runs down to the sea
I'll hold you in my arms and take you with me

Tell me the stories of other young men
Who left what they loved to start rambling again
Strayed in the ports of their own promised land
After the ship had long sailed on

The valleys were green as we looked from the mountains
The mist on the hills rolling by
The valleys were green as we ran down the mountains
Free as the wind that blows far and wide

If time is the river and we are the shore
I'll stand here beside you forever and more
True as the water runs down to the sea
I'll hold you in my arms and take you with me

Tell me the stories of where you have been
All those fine places I never have seen
I counted the days The years in between
After the ship had long sailed on

The valleys were green as we looked from the mountains
The mist on the hills rolling by
The valleys were green as we ran down the mountains
Free as the wind that blows far and wide

If time is the river and we are the shore
I'll stand here beside you forever and more
After the last star has faded and gone
I'll lie in your arms and I'll sail on

02 Tower of Ivory

Baby I won't cry
Tears won't hide my eyes
Baby I won't cry

Dream of me tonight
Sleep and hold me tight
Dream of me tonight

Lose yourself on high
Leave the world behind
Lose yourself on high

Tower of Ivory
Love's sweet sanctuary
Tower of Ivory

Baby I won't cry
Tears won't hide my eyes
Baby I won't cry

© J Eoin

03 Sunshowers

When we were children
We played out in the sunshowers
When we were children
We danced out in the sunshowers
We walked home in the rain

While we were running
The wind would race behind us
While we were running
The leaves would chase behind us
We found shelter in the storm

Front doors were bigger
Windows all closed over
Front doors were bigger
Open wide when you called over
We took one day at the time

Free city marches
We watched them with our fathers
Free city marches
We watched them for their fathers
We rose with the dawn

So we remember
We tell each other stories
So we remember
We tell each other's story
We look to the sky

When we were children
We played out in the sunshowers
When we were children
We danced out in the sunshowers
We walked home in the rain

04 Beir Me Ó

Beir mé ó ó ró bean ó
Beir mé ó ó ró bean í
Beir mé ó ó ró ó
Tá mé brónach is tú im dhí

Is ioma óiche fluic is fúar
Thug mé cuairt is mé liom féin
Nó go ráinig mé don áit
Mar a raibh grá geal mo croí

Beir mé ó ó ró bean ó
Beir mé ó ó ró bean í
Beir mé ó ó ró ó
Tá mé brónach is tú im dhí

I mo cláirseach ní raibh ceol
I mo mbeoraibh ní raibh brí
Nó go luaigh tú mo rún
Is fuar mé eolas ar mo dhan

Beir mé ó ó ró bean ó
Beir mé ó ó ró bean í
Beir mé ó ó ró ó
Tá mé brónach is tú im dhí
Tá mé brónach is tú im dhí

Beir mé ó ó ró bean ó ó ró bean í

Traditional

Arrangement © J Eoin

05 Corners In The Rain

I'll lay flowers and roses too
Summer flowers in memory of you
Paint the colours bold and bright
Stand together far and wide
I'll lay flowers and roses too

I'll hold candles in the square
Summer candles to remember you were there
Count the stars clear and bright
Stand together through the night
I'll hold candles in the square

I'll find corners in the rain
Summer corners to be with you again
All the people strong and bright
Stand together side by side
I'll find corners in the rain

I'll lay flowers and roses too
Summer flowers in memory of you
Paint the colours bold and bright
Stand together far and wide
I'll lay flowers and roses too
I'll lay flowers and roses too

© J Eoin

06 Untitled War Song

No one needs another great song
To sing of war and evil done
When the dust has blown and settled
We mourn the loss and grieve as one

No one needs another rainbow
The air that day was pale and gold
It burned our skin and killed our children
There were no marks No bullet holes

No one needs another great song
Telling us what's right and wrong
In the name of God and this holy union
May the mighty kneel and the peace be won

We learned to run while we were hiding
Left everything when we heard the bell
Like a stone dropped in the water
We felt the waves when the barrels fell

No one needs another great song
Telling us what's right and wrong
In the name of God and this holy union
May the mighty kneel and the peace be won

For the love of God and this blessed union
May the mighty kneel and the peace be won

© J Eoin

07 The Colour of Light (Live)

Say it once Say it twice
I'll take your advice
I'll think it over
See me now See me then
I'll count to ten
I'll find another

The World is a safe place
To learn about heartache
No one can deny
The World is a strange place
I'm falling on my face
No time to decide

I was wrong
I was right
The Colour of Light

What goes up must come down
I'll keep what I've found
For ever after
Easy come Easy go
I'll let you know
Sooner or later

The World is a safe place
To learn about heartache
No one can deny
The World is a strange place
I'm falling on my face
No time to decide

I was wrong
I was right
The Colour of Light